

Transnationalism, Identities' Dynamics and Cultural Diversification
in Urban Post-migratory Situations

TRICUD Final International Conference

14, 15 & 16 May 2014

Room of Professors (1st floor), University of Liège

9 Place du 20 Août, 4000 Liège, Belgium

The TRICUD Final International Conference aims at presenting the main findings of the multidisciplinary research programme TRICUD (2010-2014) on post-migratory cities and transnational flows, the dynamics of identities and the process of cultural diversification. TRICUD aims to better understand how migration transforms both sending societies in the South and receiving societies in the North. The conference will include keynote speakers Nina GLICK-SCHILLER (University of Manchester) and Steve VERTOVEC (University of Oxford and Max Planck Institute). The conference will also open the discussion on Transnational Families and Caregiving Practices (session 1), Trans-locality: Anchor, Mobilities and Belongings Recomposition (session 2), Cultural diversity and inter-ethnic relations in European societies (session 3) and Artistic Expression and Identity Construction in Multicultural Cities (session 4). Other speakers and active participants will include, among others, Laura MERLA (Catholic University of Louvain), Karen FOG OLWIG (University of Copenhagen), Mohamed CHAREF (University of Agadir), Christine CHIVALLON (LAM, University of Bordeaux), Ben PAGE (University College London), Pascal KAPAGAMA (University of Kinshasa), Anastasia GORODZEISKY (Ben Gurion University of the Negev), Mikael HJERM (Umea University), Thomas MALOUTAS (University of Harokopio), Lionel ARNAUD (University of Lille), Jean-Marie SECA (Université de Lorraine) and also from the University of Liège: Marco MARTINIELLO, Marc PONCELET, Marc JACQUEMAIN, Hassan BOUSETTA, Caroline ZICKGRAF, Bénédicte MEIERS, Petar KOVINCIC and Fatima ZIBOUH.

The TRICUD Conference is organized by 3 research centres involved in the TRICUD programme and based at the Institute of Human and Social Sciences of the University of Liège: the CEDEM (Centre for Ethnic and Migration Studies) - coordinator, CLEO (Centre for the Study of Public Opinion) and PÔLE SUD (Pôle Liégeois d'Etudes sur les Sociétés Urbaines en Développement).
